

B.Com Programme

Introduction

The Department of Commerce was established in 1969. It initially started its journey with a few students under the Principal, Gauri Bhusan Baruah. It flourished into a fully fledged college under the Principalship of Dipali Chaliha. B.Com Course offered by Sibsagar Commerce College at undergraduate level is affiliated to Dibrugarh University. The college has both B.Com and B.Com (Honrs) course. The departments under B.Com are:

Department of Accountancy and Finance

Department of Banking and Insurance

Department of Human Resource & Management

Department of Mathematics and Statistics

Aim of the Course

1. To impart profound knowledge and understanding of the trade and commerce.
2. To prepare the students with in-depth understanding of various tools and accounting principles.
3. To enlighten the students into the world of financial sector, commercial banks and insurance.
4. To imply practical pedagogy along with theoretical management knowledge.
5. To develop quantitative aptitude and reasoning ability among students.

Papers

Financial Accounting
Corporate Accounting
Income Tax and Practice
Cost Accounting
Management Accounting
Advanced Financial Accounting
Business Law
Indian Banking System
Fundamentals of Insurance
Insurance Management
Indian Financial Management
Corporate Law
Company Law
Entrepreneurship Development
Financial Management
Auditing
Human Recourse Management

B.Com Programme

Management Principles and Applications
Marketing
Labor and Industrial Law
Service Marketing
Trade Unionism
Advertising Management Business
Business Mathematics & Statistics
Mathematics

