

Diploma in Mass Communication

Introduction

Centre for Mass Communication and Journalism in Sibsagar Commerce College was established in the year 2021 under Dibrugarh University. The course provides the students both theoretical as well as practical knowledge and exposure about the various aspects of Communication and Development Communication Theory, Models, Journalism's History, Media Law & Ethics, and also of contemporary global, national, and local Media issues.

Aim of the Course

1. To create an environment for the students of Mass Communication & Journalism to enhance their personality.
2. To create a platform in which the students can initiate dialogues, intellectual debates, discussion and interaction within themselves, with the teachers and the people coming from various fields.

Papers

Fundamental Of Communication
Introduction To Journalism
Interview And Field Reporting
Basics Of Photography
Media Laws And Ethics
Communication Theories
Development Communication
Peace, Conflict And Photo Journalism